

Comfort Socks Newsletter - April 2010

Comfort Socks Welcomes New Sock Recipients

Comfort Socks is proud to be an outreach partner of Saved Life Ride

Here is the intro taken directly from the Saved Life Ride - A Mile in Their Shoes website;

A daily blog journal chronicling the events of a nationwide awareness ride covering 2,800 miles from Florida to California. Did I mention we are doing this on a bicycle? We aim to bring you the story from the streets, raw and uncut, as seen from the eyes of Jason J. Day, a recovered alcoholic, formerly homeless man, and the founder of Saved Life. Saved Life's mission is to provide socks, Bibles, and hope to the homeless men, women, and children we meet on our journey. They offer light to the lost, encouragement for the weary, and hope for the hurting. Saved Life, is a non-profit organization formed in 2009. Check them out at <http://savedliferide.com/>

Comfort Socks was happy to be able to send 425 pairs of socks to them at Panama City FL.

Just One Pair

You know, some people might think that 1 pair of socks doesn't matter much, but I am here to tell you that it makes a tremendous difference to the person, whose feet would otherwise be wet and cold. Thank you - Christy Hall who sent us socks with a beautiful word of encouragement neatly tucked inside.

Comfort Socks asks "Are you a Publicist at Heart?"

If so, Comfort Socks could use your help with our Heat Some Feet Campaign. The goal is to raise awareness about Comfort Socks in neighboring counties. It's easy to help - just contact local newspapers and encourage them to write an article about the Comfort Socks mission. Can we count on... you? Please contact Theresa to help.
