Hope and Comfort

I never met the founder of Hope and Comfort in person, but when Jeff Feingold and I spoke on the phone, it was apparent we were both standing in the same place. A place in our hearts to help the homeless receive hope and comfort. I am very excited to share with you the launch of Hope and Comfort. Hope and Comfort Inc. is a non-profit tax exempt 501c3 organization that seeks to help homeless and needy adults and children look, feel and stay healthy by providing them with basic and essential personal hygiene products such as soap, shampoo, and toothpaste. A Great Big Thank You to our Sock Collectors

Northpines, Inc is a clothing distributor in Salisbury, NC. The owners of Northpines, the Zirt family, have been touched by our purpose, and complimented us again with warm, tube socks for the homeless shelters we serve. I was honored to meet the crew of Northpines and want to share their smiles with you too. Please take a moment to check out their website - and if you need T-shirts, hoodies, and all kinds of warm and comfortable clothes - Northpines is the place to go. Thank you, David and Jennifer, for showing your love to others. <http://northpines.org/index.html>

Comfort Socks family member, Leslie Bennett has come up with the cutest idea to collect new socks this October. She calls it "Trick or Treat, Comfort Feet". Leslie will place a big Trick or Treat bag on the porch of her home, inviting the Arbor Creek Community of Southport NC to come over and Treat the homeless with new socks. I love creative ideas like this - Does this inspire you to do your own "Trick or Treat, Comfort Feet" event? So easy - so rewarding - and so important.

A Word from Our Founder

There are times in desperation when the sweet memory of home can be our only kindness, the only warmth of our existence. Please, let's do better, let's encourage each other, let's be warmer in our tone, and gentler in our manner, and willing to forgive. Let us learn that it is in sincerely caring for others, that we learn the true meaning of hospitality- Please open up your heart and give compassion a greater home than every before. Click on the link for a country song that speaks about a homeless mans dreams. <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MtqxY3t74To>

Please contact me directly with ways you wish to help us grow and spread comfort to the men, women and children without a home.

Sincerely,
Theresa M Tese
