

Comfort Socks Newsletter - October 2010 - Socks for the Homeless

Happy Birthday Comfort Socks – Can you believe it has been two years and just about 20,000 pairs of socks already??

Welcome New Sock Recipients

Comfort Socks is honored to have sent socks to the Veterans for Change Homeless Heroes Program. The Veterans for Change operate under the National Faith Based Coalition Disabled Veterans Enterprises. I know it's a long title, but their name mirrors a long list of services for our homeless vets. Though the Veterans for Change is without a website at present – they have secured the domain name www.veterans-for-change.org, so please check it soon to see the help our vets are receiving.

Say hello to Taking it to the Streets Ministries of Winston Salem, NC. Billie Corne started this Ministry back in 2003. He wanted to do something positive and completely selfless for those less fortunate. It wasn't long before that Billie was given a Bus, which helped jump start this Ministry. Billie now has 2 buses and the Ministry is growing. What does Taking it to the Street Clothing Ministry do? The buses go to the homeless, and homeless people choose the clothes they need. Comfort Socks is proud to supply socks to homeless served by taking it to the street ministry. To find out more, visit there website here:

Welcome Echo-Homeless Resource Fair – Austin, TX

The Homeless Resource Fair, formerly known as the Stand Down, is a one-day event that links homeless individuals and families with community resources. This year's event will be held on Saturday November 13, 2010 and it will provide attendees with medical services, referrals to social service agencies, legal assistance, haircuts, food, and of course, SOCKS. The Homeless Resource Fair is important in connecting hundreds of homeless individuals with a community that can restore their hope. http://www.austinecho.org/resource_fair.htm

A Great Big Thank You to Our Sock Collectors

Although the North Carolina coast experienced extremely hard rainfall, that didn't stop Sharon Methodist Church from hearing the call of Comfort Socks. 524 pairs of socks were collected during the week long sock event by the congregation. Thank you, Sharon Methodist, for not allowing the rain to stop your caring for the homeless of America.

Dutch Fork Junior Civitans

Thank you to Dutch Fork Junior Civitans for collecting 63 pairs of socks for us. This service club is part of the Dutch Fork High School located in Irmo, SC. Special thanks to Ms. Demetra Vastis for getting the girls involved with the Comfort Socks mission.

Read about the Civitan Club here http://www.civitan.net/dutchfork/pagesdutchfork/2_2.html

Jackie Helfrich, of Hampton Bays, NY, (photo) was busy these last months getting her community to gather socks for us. NYSARC, Inc Suffolk Chapter, and AHRC were main contributors of the 201 pairs of socks we happily received. Thank you to Jackie for leading the way to and encouraging others to join the Comfort Socks family.

Soodle Billy, our friend in Ireland, has done it again - today we received copies of other newspapers that have run an article about Comfort Socks in IRELAND - this is so exciting. How does one add to the comfort of new socks? Soodle knows how. She sent Comfort Socks beautiful inspirational sayings that she laminated and decorated with pretty ribbons and bow. Just the sort of thing that will lift the spirit of someone in need. To receive 10% off her craft items, customized stationary, and other items, please email Soodle at perfectlyimperfect@live.ie - Thank you so much, Soodle, for all you do.

Welcome Kenan Loop Road Community 4H Club - our newest volunteers collecting socks. To help support their 10/1 - 12/15/10 sock drive, bring socks to the 4H location at 804 Kenan Loop Rd, Wallace, NC. Socks may also be dropped off at St. John Missionary Baptist Church located in Wallace, NC - Contact us or Ms Ella Murphy at 910-441-8595

Supply Elementary School, we love you for all you do for us and our community. Thank you for hosting a week long sock drive. See next month's newsletter for more details.

Renfro, the maker of Fruit of the Loom read about Comfort Socks in the Star News this past month. Inspired by our work, they contacted us and shipped out almost 400 pairs of socks the next day. I have a feeling you will be hearing more about the Renfro generosity in the months to come. A great company with a heart for the homeless. We welcome, Renfro, with open arms.

Check out new Sock Drop Location tab on our website. Bright Green, you can't miss it. If you have a business or retail location, and would like to become a sock drop location, please contact Theresa@comfortsocksonline.org, or call Theresa at 910-269-8577.

Say Hi to Shelly Suazo, (photo) winner of our contest 2010 for her poem "Socks are Comfy". Here is Shelly, proud of her certificate and gift card. Shelly went an extra step and sent us 10 beautiful cards of hope, each one unique, colorful, and full of warm sentiments to go along with the nice, new, warm and comfy socks. Shelly, we welcome you to the Comfort Socks family.

Upcoming Events

In December (1st week) Southport Elementary has a huge celebration called "WE LOVE OUR PARENTS IN PE." Over 100 parents and the entire school (750 students) participate. There are lots of stations set up in PE and the students come and play with their parents. One particular station is called "Fill the Stocking" where the families can shoot balls in a stocking, but the PE teacher, and good friend, Wendy Jones, had an inspiration to "shoot socks in it." How cute is that! Wendy's Power Walking Ministries collects athletic shoes for those in need – If you want to help – please contact Wendy at powerwalkingministries@yahoo.com

UNCW is working on a Slam Dunk promotion for Comfort Socks– How? Bring a sock donation for a reduced price ticket to a UNCW basketball game. Now that is a great team effort! Thank you, UNCW - looking forward to many baskets full of socks.

The games and promotions are as follows:

- Wednesday, December 29 Women's basketball vs Ohio 7:00pm – $3 Adult ticket with a sock donation.
- Thursday, December 30 Men's basketball vs Toledo 7:00pm - $9 adult ticket with a sock donation.
